OVERVIEW

KakaoPay is the digital wallet and financial services arm of Kakao, fully integrated into South Korea's ubiquitous messaging app, KakaoTalk.

MISSION & PURPOSE

To provide a single platform for all financial services, making the flow of money as easy as sending a message.

NOTABLE IMPACT

"KakaoPay goes public, signaling the triumph of the super-app model. Almost every South Korean uses it for everything from peer-to-peer transfers to investing and insurance."

FOUNDER PROFILE

Backed by Kakao Corp (founded by Brian Kim) and heavily invested in by Ant Group.
